Monroe's 1825 Message to Congress

Being deeply impressed with the opinion that the removal of the Indian tribes from the lands which they now occupy within the limits of the several states and Territories . . . is of very high importance to our Union... The United States are bound to extinguish [remove] the Indian title to the lands within it whenever it may be done peaceably and on reasonable conditions...